Dublin, Feb. 18. We are assured that several Persons were guilty of Blasphemy, and horrid Expressions and Heralds, in Contempt of the Holy Trinity, at a Tavern in this City on Sunday Night last. That the Head of this execrable Gang is a Painter, who, lately as a Poet, had great Encouragement from the polite and penetrating People of this City, who are to their great Credit, very fond of encouraging every Thing, and Person, but such as may deserve their good Opinion. An excellent Prelate, who is always watchful for the Defence of Christianity, being informed of it, procured a Lord Chief Justice's Warrant against the Gentlemen: The poetical Painter is fled, and one who is humbly content to be only a Painter, is lodged in Newgate to answer for his Crime; and it is no ways to be doubted, but that a Christian Judge and Jury will convince them, that it is as punishable to utter Treason against the King of Kings, as against their earthly Sovereign.

At the Commencement of our University last Tuesday, a greater Number than usual of Bachelors, Masters, and Doctors went out. The Prudence and good Government of this Academy, begins so strongly to influence their Country, that many hopeful young Gentlemen have been disappointed in their Journeying to Oxford and Cambridge, their Guardians and Parents being convinced, that Ireland may breed Scholars, whether it can advance and support them or not.

Since the accurate and so much wanted Survey of the Harbour of Waterford, lately made by Captain Doyle, the Merchants and other Gentlemen of that City are going to establish a Cod Fishery on the Banks there. Our Correspondent, whose Letter is now before us, adds, that there is an inexhaustible Quantity of Cod on those Banks, and better than that of Newfoundland; but yet they never durst attempt a Fishery before the Captain took the Pains to survey their Harbour, in which many a Dutch and English Ship has been lost for want of a thorough Knowledge of the Banks.

Yesterday Morning died William Ludlow, Esq; of the Gout in his Stomach.

Yesterday Morning came on in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, a Trial, in a Cause, wherein Lieutenant John Cunningham was Plaintiff, and Mr. Oliver M'Alister Defendant, for criminal Conversation with the Plaintiff's Wife: The Trial lasted from 10 in the Morning till 10 at Night, when the Jury brought in a Verdict for the Plaintiff for 200 l. Damages, with 6 d. Cost.

On the 6th Instant Caun and Hugh Mageniz, being two of the Rogues that robbed the Mail, were apprehended by Mr. Nicholas Lorimer of Markishill, and his Servants, who were immediately committed to the Gaol of Ardmagh; the remaining 12 Bags that was taken by them out of the Mail, were found at some Distance from their Houses on the 10th Instant.

Richard Hungerford, Esq; and Miss Beacher, a Lady of the highest Accomplishment, and 7000 l. Fortune, were married the 12th Instant at Night.

On Wednesday last the Committee appointed by the charitable and musical Society at the Bull's Head in Fishamble-street, for relieving poor Debtors, met at the City Marshalsea between 8 and 9 in the Morning, and continued there till 5 in the Afternoon; during which Time they released 41 Prisoners, by compounding their Debts and Fees to the Satisfaction of their Creditors. They have agreed to meet again next Monday upon the same charitable Design, and are resolv'd to prosecute as far as their Work will hold out, hoping for the charitable Assistance of such worthy Persons as approve of their Undertaking.
